

Anne Rabin

Principal

Ernst & Young LLP

Anne Rabin joined Ernst & Young in 2008 as a Principal and is leading the firm's efforts in the U.S. in transaction advisory services for infrastructure. Anne has 25 years of deal experience in financing infrastructure projects and was most recently a Managing Director at FGIC, heading up their project finance business in North America. Prior to FGIC she headed a similar group at Ambac for six years and spent seven years at UBS advising and lending to infrastructure projects.

Ms. Rabin has participated in a wide range of notable financings, including transportation assets, such as the Costanera Norte toll road in Santiago, Chile, the Central Texas Turnpike, the Northwest Parkway in Denver, Colorado, the Golden Ears Bridge in British Columbia, the Calgary Ring Road and the Las Vegas Monorail, water and waste facilities and privately financed stadiums, including the New York Yankees, the New York Giants and the New England Patriots.

Anne earned a BA from Hampshire College and an MPA from Harvard University.