

Fredric W. Kessler

Partner

Nossaman Guthner Knox & Elliott LLP

Fredric Kessler is a nationally recognized leader in the field of public-private partnerships (PPPs). His precedent setting transactional work has been instrumental in the success of high profile public infrastructure projects such as the Tacoma Narrows Bridge and the Pocahontas Parkway. With more than 28 years of legal experience, Mr. Kessler is adept at structuring successful concessions and advising on the strategic business decisions behind them. He has pioneered the domestic application of international PPP best practices and has extensive experience with innovative procurement and project delivery methods, and negotiated agreements.

Mr. Kessler frequently speaks and writes about PPPs at key industry conferences and in professional publications. He was recently asked to serve on a blue ribbon panel to develop national policy recommendations for transportation financing.

Education

J.D., University of California, Hastings College of the Law, 1978; Order of the Coif
B.A., Wesleyan University, 1974, magna cum laude