

Karen Hedlund

Partner

Nossaman LLP

Karen leads Nossaman's East Coast practice, advising project owners nationally and serving as an expert on federal policy initiatives. She specializes in the structuring of public-private partnerships, including concession arrangements for highways and transit systems. Karen has also played a leading role in developing state and federal legislation to facilitate public-private partnerships, including federal laws related to private activity bonding to encourage private equity investments. She is currently advising the State transportation agencies on PPP projects in Virginia, North Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Florida, Texas and Puerto Rico.

Karen has recently testified on PPP public policy issues before the Subcommittee on Highways and Transit of the Transportation and Infrastructure Committee of the United States Congress, the National Surface Transportation Policy and Revenue Study Commission, and state legislative bodies in Florida, Georgia, Illinois and Pennsylvania.

Karen received her J.D. from Georgetown University Law Center and her A.B. from Harvard University.
